

THE SPR CASSETTE COLLECTION

Introduction

The SPR cassette collection consists of nearly 2000 (2017) audio cassettes, CDs and mp3s of lectures, study days, conferences and other events recorded during the last fifty years. Many of the cassettes have more than one lecture on them. There is considerable confusion within the collection since some of the titles do not give much indication as to the contents of the talks and there are also differences apparent concerning what is printed on the actual cassette itself.

There are two indices to elucidate the contents. The first list of 'Names' identifies in bold type the speaker or author of the lecture concerned or when the lecture's title is dedicated or highlights an individual. For example, if Bernard Carr gave a talk devoted to the work of Bob Morris then both Bernard Carr (as the lecturer) and Bob Morris (as the person named in the title of the talk) would both be indicated in bold print. If Bob Morris was mentioned in less detail in another Carr talk then Carr would be in bold type, but Morris would be in normal print.

The second list of 'Subjects' identifies in bold type the subject of the lecture's title either directly or indirectly when disguised. For example, a talk about music and parapsychology would have both words in bold type. An unidentified talk concerning its subject matter, of which there are many, would be listed in bold type once the main content had been ascertained. Normal print would be used for less significant references to subjects discussed. Decisions have been made to not draw attention to such words as 'paranormal' or 'supernatural' since they appear in most of the material because of the nature of the subjects under discussion, but other words such as 'psi' and 'parapsychology' have been included since they imply a particular aspect of the paranormal. Words have sometimes been adapted/ changed from the titles to promote unity of expression, for example 'replicability' and 'repeatability'; 'mediums'/ 'mediumship'; 'ghosts'/ 'phantoms'/ 'specters' etc. Singular and plural words have been merged as in 'spirit'/ 'spirits'; 'psychic'/ 'psychics' etc.

The current list shown is as of December 2017.
