By Car

From London/M25,

- Take the A3 southbound, or leave the M25 at Junction 10 and take the A3 south towards Guilford.
- Leave the A3 at the junction after the M25 exit, signposted to Ockham and Ripley.
- Following the signs to "Horsley Park", take the B2039 to Ockham and East Horsley.
- This road is called Ockham Road North, stay on this road, going through Ockham and into west Horsley. You will pass under a railway bridge (now in East Horsley) and a parade of shops and continue along for about a mile.
- Entrance to the Horsley site is on the left, just after the second parade of shops and the pedestrian crossing.

From the South,

- Take the A3 heading north.
- Exit at the junction after Guildford, signposted to Ripley, Woking and Dorking.
- At the first roundabout turn right towards Clandon and Dorking (A247).
- Continue through Clandon until you reach a set of traffic lights and turn left onto the A246.
- Continue on this road, going straight across a roundabout at West Horsley,
- Until you come to a left turn with the Duke of Wellington Public House on the corner.
- Following the signs to "Horsley Towers", turn left into East Horsley and
- The entrance is 100 metres on the right, after the church.
